WU as a gateway to CEE – a key to success

Christoph Badelt
Rector of WU

“CEE is an area of major growth and change in Europe. Given WU’s vicinity to the region, we have established a CEE Competence Center providing information and services to students, faculty, businesses, and society at large.

WU’s CEE competence encompasses many research projects, special training opportunities for students from Austria and abroad, as well as consulting services for companies with an interest in CEE.”

WU convinces with quality

WU's broad program portfolio attracts students from 106 nations, who look for a solid, research-based education with a breadth of choices, training in social skills as well as state-of-the-art didactic principles.
